JOHN E. CRONLY.
COUNSELOR AT LAW.

ALDRICH COURT,
45 BROADWAY.

New York, 30 November 1888.

My dear Sir:-

I am informed that, at a reasonable expense, I can have some gold bullion (pure) in my possession minted into such U. S. Government coin as I may desire.

If you will kindly inform me, at your convenience, if such information is correct, I shall be greatly obliged to you.

Very truly yours
